

NEW  INDY

NEW-INDY NEWS

COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Q2 | 2025

This edition of the New-Indy Catawba Newsletter features the mill's recent collaboration with local community stakeholders and recognition for the area's first responders.

NEW-INDY EMPLOYEES TEACH PAPERMAKING TO ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENTS

Left: New-Indy Catawba representatives visited Ebinport Elementary School for a paper-making demonstration. Right: Students took home personally-made sheets of paper.

Representatives of New-Indy Catawba visited the Ebinport Elementary School in Rock Hill for a paper-making demonstration with a second-grade class. The students learned about the paper-making process from beginning to end and took home personally made sheets of paper. The demonstration was led by New-Indy Catawba quality manager Chandler Thomas, environmental engineer Ryan Williams, and HR business partner Katie Walker. New-Indy is enthusiastic about sharing the mill's environmental story and continues to seek opportunities to engage with its neighbors.

NEW-INDY HOSTS STATE EDUCATION PROGRAM

New-Indy Catawba hosted a meeting for local directors of the South Carolina Careers and Technical Education (CTE) program, which included a guided tour of the facility. The CTE program's mission is to cultivate a skilled workforce that meets the needs of business and industry, fostering sustainable growth and economic prosperity for the state. CTE directors from Chester, Rock Hill, and York Tech were among those in attendance. This collaboration highlights another example of New-Indy's commitment to education and the community, working in partnership with state and local entities to help build career pathways for students in grades 6-12.

Local Directors of the South Carolina Office of Career and Technical Education recently held a meeting at the New-Indy Catawba facility.

LINANNE HOMES TOURS NEW-INDY CATAWBA

New-Indy Catawba hosted employees of Charlotte-based homebuilder Linanne Homes for a tour of the facility. Linanne Homes builds homes in the area, including in Fort Mill, Indian Land and Lancaster, and is currently developing a neighborhood in Waxhaw, NC.

The visit showcased New-Indy's modern operations, commitment to sustainability, and dedication to fostering strong community partnerships. It also highlighted New-Indy Catawba's role as a major economic contributor in York County and its ongoing efforts to connect with local businesses and stakeholders. Events like these demonstrate New-Indy Catawba's dedication to transparency, collaboration, and community engagement.

Left: Representatives of Charlotte-based Linnane Homes visited New-Indy Catawba for a tour of the mill. The visit provided an in-depth look at New-Indy's operations, commitment to sustainable practices, and dedication to building community partnerships.

NEW-INDY THANKS LOCAL EMERGENCY RESPONDERS

New-Indy Catawba would like to extend its sincere gratitude to the Leslie Volunteer Fire Department and Van Wyck Fire Rescue for their exceptional efforts in extinguishing a brush fire that ignited near the facility earlier this year.

Their swift and coordinated response ensured the fire was quickly and safely brought under control, protecting New-Indy Catawba and the surrounding community. We are proud to support our local first responders, who consistently demonstrate dedication and professionalism. New-Indy Catawba is committed to supporting our first responders.

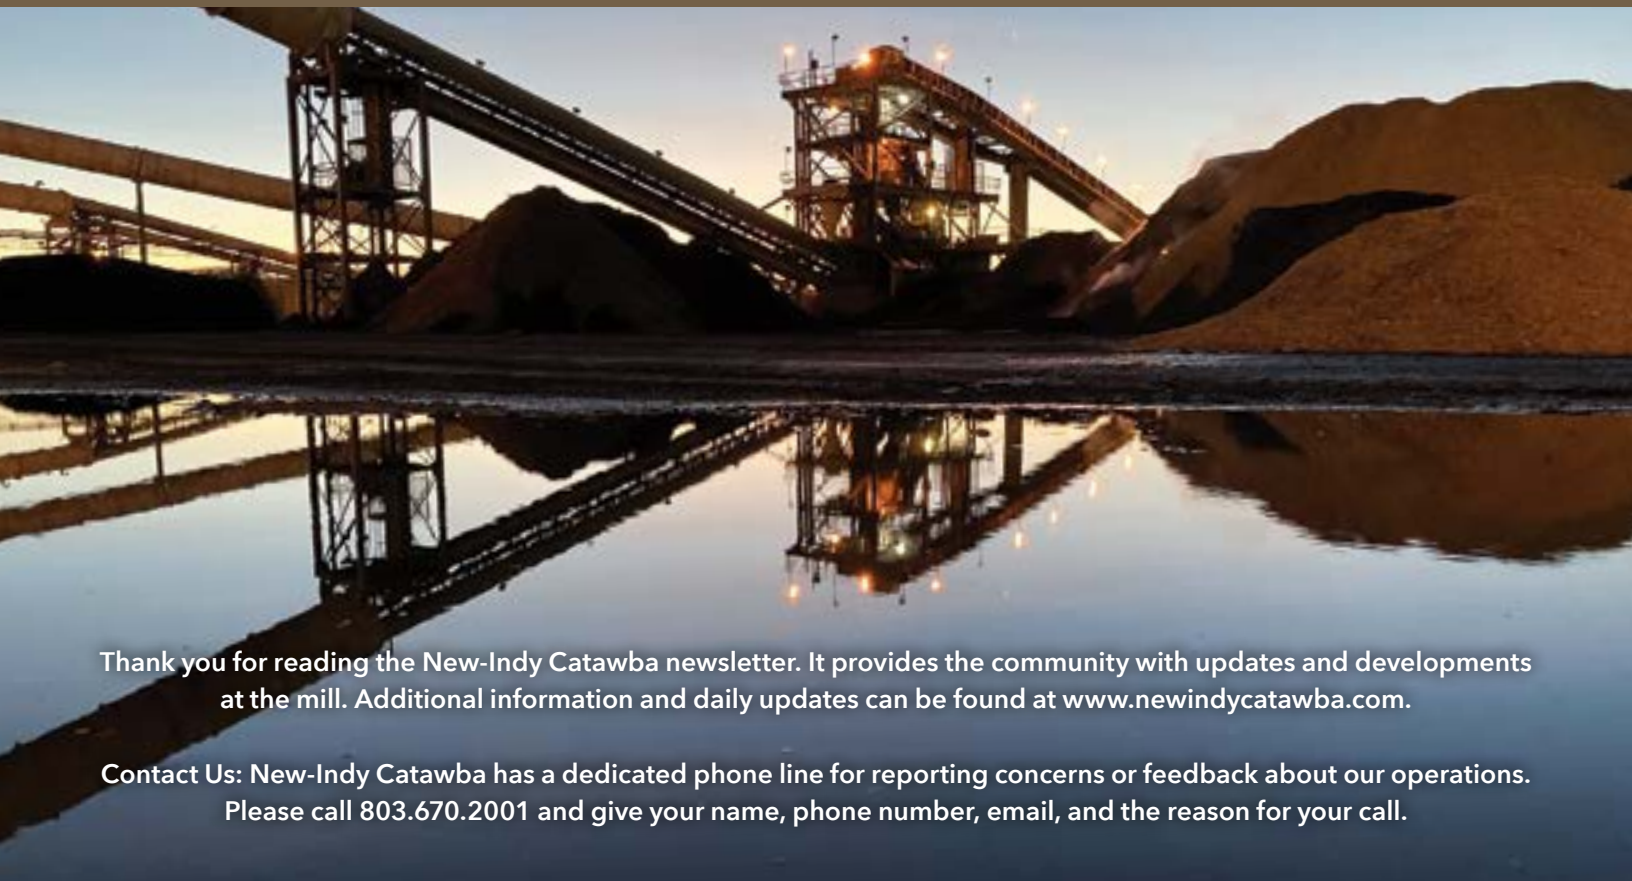

"When a brush fire ignited on New-Indy's property, local emergency response teams swiftly brought it under control."

ABOUT NEW-INDY CATAWBA

New-Indy Catawba is a world-class integrated virgin linerboard and pulp manufacturing mill located on the Catawba River. The facility opened in 1959 and began operation as New-Indy Catawba in 2019. The mill produces a lightweight linerboard used in corrugated packaging and unbleached pulp for other applications.

The facility supports the livelihoods of more than 400 hard-working men and women and their families as well as hundreds of indirect regional jobs in logging, chemical and material supply, and transportation. In addition, New-Indy Catawba has partnered with the U.S. Department of Labor and York Technical College to develop an accredited apprenticeship program.

Thank you for reading the New-Indy Catawba newsletter. It provides the community with updates and developments at the mill. Additional information and daily updates can be found at www.newindycatawba.com.

Contact Us: New-Indy Catawba has a dedicated phone line for reporting concerns or feedback about our operations. Please call 803.670.2001 and give your name, phone number, email, and the reason for your call.